

Sermon Reflection Question for 9/22

1. Who are some of your favorite authors? Why?
2. Who do you know in your life who is bit ahead of you on your spiritual journey?
3. Who do you know who is a bit behind you on our spiritual journey?
4. How do we create space for those a bit ahead and a bit behind us to experience wholeness and transformation?
5. How do you interact with that doesn't agree with your moral standards?
6. "The church which embodies the means of grace invades the imagination and forces the society to consider that there might just be a loving God who rules the universe and has a true transformational influence on all of us." Timothy Tennent. What does it mean for you personally to embody the means of grace? What does it mean for North Sound Church to embody the means of grace?
7. Where do you have the opportunity to embody the means of grace?
8. I Corinthians 13: 4-5a. "Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude." Which one of these descriptors of love resonates most with you and why?
9. Who are the children in your life who experience your unconditional, irrational love? How do you express that to them?
10. G.K. Chesterton said, "We are all in the same boat on a stormy sea. We owe each other such a terrible loyalty." When have you experienced the loyalty of another when you needed it? When have you been one of terrible loyalty for another?
11. How can the descriptions of love in 1 Corinthians 13:4-5a give you practical ways to love your neighbors this week?