

1. When have you experienced the reality that we are cracked pots?
2. What loss have you felt for a long time? How have you been comforted? I
3. Did you ever learn how to drive a standard transmission? If so when?
4. Can you think of a way that being wounded in the past has impacted the way you live in the present?
5. How has the pain of the past impacted your sense of the future?
6. Read Romans 8:26-28. What hope and encouragement do you hear in this passage. What is hard for you to believe in this passage?
7. When have you had to overcome anger in your life? What was the process for you?
8. Read 1 Corinthians -3:7. Which verb in this verse stirs your heart?
9. As you think of those you love, what are your hopes for them?
10. In what ways are you committed to endure in a difficult context? When have you experienced the endurance of someone who loves you? What did that mean to you?
11. What habits do you exercise to live a lifestyle of love?
12. What is your takeaway from this week's message?