

How do you keep a balance of knowing what God is doing and what is going on the world?

How have you been influenced by or impacted by individualism?

“Love is not easily provoked to anger” When have you experienced quick anger?

How does love compel you to seek the well-being of others?

When have you had to let go of resentment? Is there someone now you need to forgive?

In what way can you love differently this week?