

1. What do you enjoy about the holidays? What is difficult about it for you?
2. Faith: ongoing trust in God. How does your faith impact your life and relationships?
3. What are other things in your life in which you have at times pinned your hope?
4. Read Acts 2:42-47. What words or phrases stand out to you? How does North Sound church reflect this description?
5. "not perfect, but loving." How does this describe North Sound Church? How does this describe your small group?
6. How would you say that individualism has caused us to lose our sense of community? What else gets in the way of community?
7. One of the values of a community is humility and mutual service. Where do you see this? What steps can you take as an individual and as a community to embody this value?
8. Another value is the role of each member and practice unity in diversity. How do we embody this? How can we do better? Who do you appreciate for their unique gifts?
9. We value trust of each other? How have you cultivated trustworthiness in your relationships? How have you been beneficiary of trust ?
10. We offer grace to each other. What does this look like to you? To whom do you need to extend grace today. How will you do this?
11. We extend forgiveness to each other. Who do you need to forgive? What keeps you from releasing their debt?
12. We recognize that true love grows. How are you attending to your closest relationships to ensure that they continue to grow?
13. How can your life reflect the love of the Trinity as reflected in Rublev's icon?