

How has this sermon series on love been an encouragement and/or a challenge to you?

Where in the gospels do you see Christ's love? What other gospel story resonates with you?

When have you entered a room and felt embarrassed and awkward? What happened?

Read 1 Corinthians 13: 4-7. How do you experience God's love in your life?

In what ways do you feel bent?

Can you think of a time when expectation or fear or something else seemed to be in conflict with how you wanted to respond? How did you respond?

Where do you see that expectations or a desire for comfort gets in the way of acknowledging God in our midst?

Who in your context needs to experience the love of God that invites healing and restoration? How can the work of love that He has done in your life inspire you to share that love?
